

~Spring is PRIME Art Show season in DCSD. Here are our upcoming art shows where HUNDREDS of MVHS students will be participating: showing in drawing, painting, sculpture, jewelry, photography, commercial art, and ceramics.

~The art department, and our students, would LOVE to have your support at one or more of these extraordinary exhibits:

1) Douglas County Senior Portfolio Showcase- (March 7,8,9, at MVHS) this is a district-wide show coordinated by Tim Drey and Jen Groom. This year MVHS will host the show too- SO NO EXCUSES!!!! Come check it out! Colleges and Art schools from all over the country will be attending, offering seniors scholarships. Last year MVHS students won OVER $70,000 worth of scholarships at this show!!!

2) Continental League Art Show- (April 17-26, Curtis Center for the Arts, Greenwood Villiage)

This shows off THE very best artists in the continental league- every media is on display- college scholarships are awarded at this show as well.

3) Park Meadows Douglas County Secondary Art Show- (April 18-25, Park Meadows Mall)

This annual show is at GREAT, public venue and every school in the district is represented in every art media. Quite the reception too!!!! Last year Tom Neal played classical guitar while hundreds of people enjoyed the opening of the show.....maybe he will play there again for us!!

4) MVHS Spring Show- (Early May, date TBA, location- MVHS)

This show will run over a weekend in early May and will showcase all current art students in the department. At this show, a People's Choice Award, as well as building purchase awards, will be voted on by staff.

Please come out and support your MVHS student artists!!!! We will send out additional reminders as show dates near.
