

PARENT UNIVERSITY

The Parent University's winter/spring session is about to begin! Classes start January 22 and run through May 1. The Parent University offers a variety of low cost workshops which focus on a variety of topics, including parenting issues. For the first time this session, Superintendent Jim Christensen will be hosting three one-night sessions entitled, Public School Primer. These sessions, starting February 21, are formatted with parents of elementary-aged students in mind, will focus on school calendars, school start times, safety and other key issues facing schools.

Other courses include:

Middle School Success, for students and parents, offered at three locations February 12 through March 25.

Secret Life of Eating Disorders, a personal perspective to inform parents about eating disorders, presented by a Douglas County High School senior, starting March 5.

CPR: Prepare to Save a life! will certify parents, daycare providers and babysitters in CPR in two hours on January 24.

Coursebooks will arrive soon via mail and in student folders, and can be found on the web at www.dcsdk12.org. For questions or to register for a class, call Alyse Bradley at 303-387-0129 or email at alyssa.bradley@dcsdk12.org.
